

PENDIDIKAN 2013

SPECIAL FEATURE IN

The importance of education today is without dissent whereby it is basic right, a necessity and a luxury. More than ever before, parents, educators and students are showing unparalleled interest in quality of education.

With a multitude of education institutions and a long list of course options available out there, making the best choice could prove quite a daunting task. The ultimate concern lies in obtaining quality education, which serves as a passport to a brighter future in terms of an enduring career and professional development.

Harian Metro will be publishing a special supplement on education for the benefit of education institutions to help students find the best education offer that works for them.
